

MORE TROOPS TO ENTER MEXICO?

Another Large Force Is Being Accumulated at Columbus; Motor Trucks to Go.

Columbus, N. M., March 26.—Another column of American troops may soon enter Mexico in pursuit of Villa, according to the common belief here in view of the steady accumulation of troops here.

In addition to the troops which detained here, a large part of which were cavalry, trains passed through here laden with troops and bound, apparently, for some points westward along the border. Soldiers were kept busy throughout the day preparing combat and hospital trains and carrying equipment to the field force.

One of the problems which the military department at the military base has been striving desperately to solve is that of supplies with which to feed the troops. For several years the internal strife in Mexico practically has stifled the agricultural interests of that district in Mexico through which the American troops are believed to be passing. As a result neither food for the men nor forage for the animals can be obtained in Mexico and must be transported from here.

Trucks to Go South.
The large motor trucks, the equipment of which has occupied military and civilian mechanics for two days, were ready for service today, their drivers asserting that they were waiting orders to move south. The additional hospital and signal units, also were said to be ready for field service.

Bath Tub Is Busy.
The only bath tub in town for which a charge of 25 cents for a half hour bath is maintained, was kept busy all day Sunday and far into the night and the proprietor asserted that he had reservations enough to keep his tub busy all day today.

Censor Troops Also.
Major W. H. Sample, commandant of the military field base here, was kept in communication with Gen. Pershing's forces by means of the army wireless, but clinging tenaciously to the censorship ruling, he refused to make public any information received. Instructions have been issued that not only communications sent out by newspaper correspondents must be censored but also that those of officers and men of the army and of residents of Columbus must be passed upon. All incoming telegraphic messages also are read and approved by the military censor before delivery.

VILLA'S TROOPS MENACE TORREON

Fighting at Five Places, But Carranza Troops Sustain Few Killed.

Torreon, Mex., March 26.—Fighting between government troops and small bands of Villistas has taken place at five places around here, namely, at Villaseca, Matamoros, Coate, San Ignacio and Casas Chorrillos. While the government troops held their own, with a small number of killed and wounded, the attacks seem part of a concerted movement.

The Coate train, which was detailed near Pomona several days ago, has arrived here. Four Mexicans were killed in the week and a number injured. Owing to the bad conditions along the road, the Americans here and at Durango, numbering about 100 men, women and children, are undecided about leaving. Travel is very slow.

Gen. Nafarrate is coming here from Tampico to take charge of the situation. Gen. Francisco Gonzales, here, may go to Tampico. Local sentiment is that there is absolutely no business here at present for Americans and that it might be better for them at least to go to Monterrey.

Repair Railroads.
Work trains were sent out of here today to repair railroad bridges which have been burned by small bands of bandits at Sacramento and in the direction of Monterrey. Some freight cars have also been burned. It is expected that service will be resumed Tuesday. The regular schedule to Durango went into effect again today.

NEW TREATY TO GO AFTER VILLA IS POSSIBLE

Mexico not to occupy Mexican towns. Such occupation, it is said, might have the result of stirring up resentment among the Mexicans. However, Gen. Pershing's orders will not prevent him from searching a town should he have reason to believe Villa or any of his followers were secreted there. Neither is he prevented from passing through towns in an emergency, although officials feel sure that such action would be taken only where it is necessary.

U. S. ARMY IS REINFORCED

Chase of Villa Is Being Pressed by Gen. Pershing.

Column of cavalry, is said to have passed through Chihuahua, following the road taken by Villa. With Carranza troops reported at Namiagua in large numbers, supposedly immediately south of Villa, there are some who believe that the bandit and his band are in close quarters.

There is a road leading from Cruces, where Villa was reported Saturday night, southwest across the Continental divide to Babicora and the nearest ranch. It is through this or directly south past Namiagua into the Guerrero country that Villa is expected to try to escape. Gen. Pershing's column is supposed to be making an effort to get to Babicora before Villa can cross the mountains and get there.

16th Infantry at Colonia Diaz.
Information was received here today that the 16th Infantry, which accompanied Gen. Pershing on the march into Mexico, is camping now at Colonia Diaz, 10 miles south of the border.

FUNSTON WOULD OPERATE TRAINS

San Antonio, Texas, March 26.—The right to operate trains under the direction of the army is the specific feature in the request made by Gen. Funston for permission to use the Mexico North Western railroad in forwarding supplies of the expeditionary forces in Mexico. This was explained today by Gen. Funston.

Gen. Funston said the equipment for the trains would have to be moved across the border line into Mexico and that American crews would be used in its operation. Guards would be carried on the trains and along the line it would be advisable to have station guards.

TROOPER OF EIGHTH CAVALRY DIES AFTER BEING THROWN

As a result of being thrown from his horse several days ago, Sergt. Bernard Connelly, troop A, Eighth cavalry, died Saturday afternoon at the military hospital at Fort Bliss.

The body was removed to the J. J. Koster Undertaking company parlors pending advice from relatives in Ireland.

The accident occurred during some maneuvers on the parade ground at Fort Bliss several days ago.

GUNBOAT "WHEELING" SAILS; BELIEVED GOING TO TAMPIOCO

Washington, D. C., March 25.—The gunboat "Wheeling," at New Orleans, was ordered today to "southern waters." It is understood here that she is bound for Tampico, where there has been some unrest in the oil fields. Late dispatches to the state department have said conditions there were quiet.

Caravanists Make Promises.
A dispatch was sent by the Visconti family in El Paso to the wife de armas in Santa Rosalia, Sunday night, asking that a detachment of soldiers be sent out to the Visconti ranch to secure the body of the dead man and avenge his death. The reply came from that office that everything would be done to locate the body and that the death would be avenged.

De la Barra is said to be a young dare devil Mexican, who has gathered about him a group of youths who are mostly under the twenty mark and while not identified with the Villa movement is sympathetic with it and ready to be a part of it if he can affect the venture.

AIRMAN FLY INTO MEXICO AND RETURN TO COLUMBUS

The airplane stationed at Columbus has begun their work as aerial scouts and seven of the eight there raised into the air after dark Sunday night and made a southern flight into Mexico and back.

Seven soldiers returned to El Paso having gone with the Sixth infantry as far as Boca Grande. J. L. Thompson, of the Sixth, said that the mission of the first day was one of the severest he ever took and that the distance had been made with a full pack and on one caution of warning.

Thompson said that the ambulances were filled with exhausted soldiers and that after a time it became necessary to leave the men along the way for the reason that the men coming behind to provide for them. The seven soldiers who came in at noon on the Golden State Limited have gone to Fort Bliss for treatment.

ENRICO VISCONTE MURDERED ON HIS RANCH NEAR SANTA ROSALIA, MEXICO.

The same group of bandits under the leadership of Leonardo de la Barra, who captured Juan Bilboa, of the Brewster line on March 6 and held him for $1500 ransom, appeared on the morning of March 14 at the ranch of his uncle, Enrico Visconti, an Italian subject, 80 miles southwest of Santa Rosalia, and for apparently no reason shot and killed Visconti. Garcia said that he escaped for the reason that he was a Mexican.

Visconti was a well-to-do cattleman in the Rio Grande valley and at the time of the tragedy his wife and two sons, Enrico and Jesus, were with him. The family knew nothing of the tragedy until Sunday afternoon when a message was sent to them by the Visconti family in El Paso.

Italians Act Quickly.
When the news of the murder reached El Paso, the members of the Italian colony, who are represented in the southwest, came together. It was decided that Vincenzo Visconti, the brother who resides at 547 East Boulevard, should be sent a message direct to the Italian ambassador at Washington, and that on Monday a protest would be drafted against the atrocities of Mexican bandits, to be signed by the leading Italian residents in El Paso and to be forwarded to the state department in regard to the Italian minister to Mexico. The dispatch from Vincenzo Visconti to the ambassador in Washington was made.

Take for Action.
"I am sorry to notify your excellency that my brother, Enrico Visconti, an Italian subject, has been murdered on his ranch in the state of Chihuahua, Mexico, by revolutionary soldiers. I beg your excellency to protest to the state department in regard to this outrageous crime which, like many others, are committed daily on foreigners in that country."

The murder of Visconti by the bandit who has adopted for himself the name of de la Barra, is considered by the Italian colony, of his nephew by marriage, Juan Bilboa, who was captured by the bandits on March 6, while he was on his way to the state capital and who was held until March 10, when the $1500 demanded by the bandits was delivered by friends from El Paso.

Referring to John Villa.
The Visconti family in El Paso say they are confident that after this happening the bandits, fearing that the United States soldiers would cross after them as they had for Villa, made their way across northern Chihuahua, presumably in an effort to make a junction with Villa, and that on the way they are resorting to murder and destruction.

Vincenzo Visconti also states that he is informed that one of the bandits who held Bilboa, a captive has been apprehended near Alamo and that Bilboa, who is now in Las Cruces with his parents, expects to leave for El Paso the next day or so to establish identification.

12TH CAVALRY'S NOW IN MEXICO

Infantry Returns to El Paso From Deming; Tuning Up Airplanes.

Two squadrons of the 12th cavalry which arrived at Columbus early Sunday from Fort Robinson, Neb., Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., and Fort Meade, S. D., are reported by civilians coming in on the Golden State Limited Sunday afternoon, to have started on their march into Mexico Sunday between one and two o'clock. The order to go forward was given, it was stated, at noon.

No sooner had the 12th cavalry started forward than the troops of the 13th cavalry that had been stationed at Marfa, Alpine and Valentine, Texas, began to unload. This last action of the 12th, it is estimated, will join the Second cavalry to make up another column. The Second cavalry being scheduled to arrive today from Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont.

Passed Through Here.
The two squadrons of the 12th passed through El Paso Saturday night at 3:30. The train after a 15-minute stop, went on to Columbus.

The first train brought two troops from Fort Robinson, a machine gun company, the band and headquarters. The second train carried four troops from Fort Meade.

On the way the two trains of cavalry passed a train bearing batteries A, B and E, Fifth field artillery, from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, which reach El Paso early Sunday morning.

Troops Back From Deming.
A special train brought two companies of the 30th infantry from Deming, N. M., Sunday morning. The companies were sent to Deming from El Paso the day following the attack on Fort Sill. On their return they went into camp again at Fort Bliss.

Passengers on the Golden State Limited from California, state that the 24th infantry at Presidio has gone to Douglas, Arizona, for border service, but that the aero squadron in San Diego has not been sent forward.

Evolutionary Plans Up.
The eight airplanes that are now at Columbus are being tested out and people coming in from Columbus say that two and three of the air birds of war are in the sky at one time. In view of the fact that these eyes of the army are swift of movement and can overtake several columns in the course of a few hours passage, they will not move forward until the summons comes.

34 Auto Trucks.
A special freight train bearing 34 "White" trucks for use by the United States army in its expedition into Mexico passed through El Paso at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. With the 17 freight cars was a pullman coach in which 44 civilians and two enlisted chauffeurs were passengers. The men are all experienced mechanics and will have charge of the trucks. The train originated in Cleveland, Ohio, and started for the border Thursday night at 10:45 o'clock. The route chosen was via the Rock Island.
